

CSI Pollen Netherlands – Focus on citizen scientist

Name: Bert Lemmens
Region: North Brabant, Netherlands

I am a hobby beekeeper since 1982. My profession was machine control engineering and management, but now I am retired.

I am teaching primary and secondary education of beekeeping for NBV (Nederlandse Bijenhoudersvereniging, <http://www.bijenhouders.nl/>) and flowers, trees, landscape and milieu matters for IVN (Instituut voor natuur educatie, an organisation who works on milieu and biodiversity, <https://www.ivn.nl/>).

Note: Bert also contributed many pictures during C.S.I. Pollen, some can be seen on our website (<http://bienenstand.at/c-s-i-pollen/photos/>).
